

LIBERTY & SUCCESS LEARNING HUB

USE OF ENGLISH

THE LEKKI HEADMASTER

1. The title The Lekki Headmaster mainly emphasizes the theme of
 - A. wealth and affluence
 - B. leadership and responsibility
 - C. corruption in society
 - D. childhood experiences
2. The Lekki environment in the novel is best described as a symbol of
 - A. rural backwardness
 - B. educational decay
 - C. modern urban pressure
 - D. political instability
3. The headmaster's major challenge in the novel arises mainly from
 - A. lack of teaching materials
 - B. indiscipline among teachers
 - C. societal expectations and pressure
 - D. poor student performance
4. The author presents the headmaster as a character who is
 - A. timid and unsure
 - B. authoritarian and harsh
 - C. principled and firm
 - D. careless and proud
5. One major lesson from the novel is that
 - A. money determines respect
 - B. leadership demands sacrifice
 - C. teachers should avoid conflict
 - D. discipline is outdated
6. The conflict in The Lekki Headmaster is mainly
 - A. man versus nature
 - B. man versus society
 - C. man versus fate
 - D. man versus self
7. The author's attitude towards educational leadership can best be described as
 - A. sarcastic
 - B. critical but hopeful
 - C. indifferent
 - D. pessimistic
8. The headmaster's reaction to pressure from parents shows his
 - A. fear of authority
 - B. moral weakness
 - C. commitment to standards
 - D. desire for popularity
9. Which of the following best describes the tone of the novel?
 - A. Humorous
 - B. Tragic
 - C. Reflective
 - D. Romantic
10. The novel mainly exposes the problem of
 - A. poor infrastructure in schools
 - B. moral compromise in leadership
 - C. student laziness
 - D. government neglect
11. The headmaster's decisions often put him in conflict with
 - A. the students
 - B. his family
 - C. parents and society
 - D. fellow headmasters
12. The setting of the novel contributes to the theme by
 - A. highlighting rural ignorance
 - B. showing educational excellence
 - C. emphasizing social pressure
 - D. portraying political struggle
13. The headmaster can best be described as a round character because he
 - A. changes with events
 - B. appears briefly
 - C. represents society
 - D. lacks emotion
14. One irony in the novel is that
 - A. discipline causes chaos
 - B. education leads to ignorance
 - C. leadership attracts hostility
 - D. honesty brings reward
15. The author uses the headmaster to criticize
 - A. students' attitudes
 - B. parental interference
 - C. teacher laziness
 - D. government funding
16. The headmaster's refusal to compromise standards suggests that the author values
 - A. obedience
 - B. popularity
 - C. integrity
 - D. wealth

17. Which theme is most prominent in The Lekki Headmaster?
 - A. Love
 - B. Discipline
 - C. Tradition
 - D. Migration
18. The headmaster's relationship with parents is best described as
 - A. friendly and relaxed
 - B. hostile and violent
 - C. tense but professional
 - D. careless and distant
19. The Lekki community in the novel is portrayed as
 - A. supportive of discipline
 - B. indifferent to education
 - C. demanding and influential
 - D. ignorant and passive
20. The author's choice of a school setting helps to
 - A. entertain readers
 - B. expose leadership challenges
 - C. promote tourism
 - D. teach science
21. The headmaster's main motivation throughout the novel is
 - A. personal gain
 - B. fear of dismissal
 - C. duty to education
 - D. public approval
22. The novel suggests that modern society often
 - A. rewards integrity
 - B. punishes honesty
 - C. ignores education
 - D. respects teachers
23. The headmaster's firmness leads to
 - A. immediate success
 - B. public praise
 - C. resistance and conflict
 - D. student rebellion only
24. The author's language in the novel is mostly
 - A. poetic and symbolic
 - B. simple and clear
 - C. complex and technical
 - D. archaic and formal
25. Which literary device is most evident in the title The Lekki Headmaster?
 - A. Metaphor
 - B. Irony
 - C. Hyperbole
 - D. Personification
26. The headmaster represents
 - A. failed leadership
 - B. moral courage
 - C. social weakness
 - D. youthful ambition
27. The novel teaches that leadership without principles leads to
 - A. peace
 - B. popularity
 - C. chaos
 - D. progress
28. The conflict between the headmaster and parents highlights
 - A. generational gap
 - B. class struggle
 - C. moral disagreement
 - D. political rivalry
29. The ending of the novel leaves the reader feeling
 - A. amused
 - B. hopeless
 - C. thoughtful
 - D. indifferent
30. Overall, The Lekki Headmaster can best be described as a novel about
 - A. urban lifestyle
 - B. school administration
 - C. ethical leadership
 - D. childhood education